Cancer Survivorship: Transition to Health and Well-Being

Wednesday, September 18, 2013

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION & STATEMENT OF NEED

Advances in multidisciplinary cancer care have happily led to an increasing population of cancer survivors. We recognize this population has unique medical and psychosocial needs and that management of the complexities of cancer survivorship extends well beyond the oncology office. Cancer survivors in our communities require compassionate, thoughtful ongoing care. This symposium will give us the opportunity to review, discuss and brainstorm with experts in this field. World renowned specialists will present a range of topics encompassing state of the art management in the field of cancer survivorship.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Internists, Primary Care Physicians, Radiologists/Oncologists, Surgeons, Hematologists/Oncologists, Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants, Nurses, Physical Therapists, Psychologists, Social Workers, Medical Students, Residents, and Fellows

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:

1. Discuss ways to overcome barriers in survivorship and transitions of care
2. Increase awareness of cancer survivor needs
3. Recognize medical complications of cancer treatment
4. Address issues related to sexuality in cancer survivors
5. Understand strategies for cancer rehabilitation
