

Rhode Island Trans Health Conference 2017

Saturday, March 4, 2017

Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University

222 Richmond Street, Providence, RI 02912

The annual RITHC was established in 2015 and each year aims to bring together the fields of medicine, behavioral health, mental health, nursing, social work, with allies and members of the trans communities they serve. The mission of the RITHC is to educate and empower trans individuals on issues of health and well-being; educate and inform allies and health service providers; and facilitate networking, community-building, and systemic change.

* Required

Call For Abstracts

Have you been involved with research or a project related to some aspect of transgender health? Share it at the Rhode Island Trans Health Conference (RITHC)!

The Rhode Island Trans Health Conference planning committee is now accepting abstracts for review. Selected authors will be invited to prepare and present a poster of their work during the conference poster session at the 2017 conference.

Guide for Authors

Projects and research from any field are welcome and encouraged.

Abstracts should include:

- Author(s) Name and Affiliation
- Project Title
- Background
- Goals
- Methods
- Results
- Learning Objectives
- Please indicate if research has been reviewed and approved by IRB (not required)

Please limit abstracts to 250 words.

Important Dates and Deadlines

Deadline for submission: January 15, 2017

Notification of acceptance: February 3, 2017

Abstract for Submission (limit 250 words) *

Email Abstracts to: CME@Brown.edu